What People Says...

Tania Mullan
Brisbane, Australia

"I love Equal Ideas. As a Mum with MS it is great to find a platform where human diversity is not just accepted - but celebrated. I also appreciate the gifts available for my wonderful support workers who deserve recognition for the value they add to my quality of life"

Jessica Smart
Brisbane, Australia

"I had the pleasure of seeing some prototype samples from Equal Ideas recently and can honestly say I have a great feeling about this new business and the offerings available. One to watch and sign up for. I can't wait to make my first purchases very soon."

Connor Grzesiak
Brisbane, Australia

"Equal Ideas" is not just a passion project, but a labor of love born out of a genuine care to not only recognize people of all abilities but to influence a culture of real change and real appreciation for people's unique stories through raising awareness. It's a powerful mission statement I believe our world needs right now more than ever to challenge the majority of indifference."
